

North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the justices of the court of pleas and quarter sessions for the county of Anson, when drawing the names of freeholders to serve as jurors on the grand and petit juries, in the superior and county courts of said county, be, and they are hereby authorised and required to draw the names of twelve freeholders, in addition to the number now required by law; and that the sheriff of said county be, and he is hereby authorised and required to summon said freeholders to attend and serve as jurors in the superior and county courts aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, That in future, each and every juror, who shall be drawn and summoned, and shall attend the superior and county courts of Anson county, shall be allowed the sum of one dollar for each and every days' attendance as a juror.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That the county court aforesaid, a majority of the justices being present, shall, and they are hereby authorised and required to lay from year to year a tax on all taxable property in said county, sufficient to pay the jurors, aforesaid; and that they be paid the same in the same manner as jurors have heretofore been paid in said county.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws, coming within the meaning and purview of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed; and that this act be in force from and after its ratification.

[Ratified 12th of January, 1847.]

CHAPTER CL.

An Act to regulate the pay of jurors and witnesses in the county of Rutherford.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That each and every juror, who, having been lawfully summoned, shall attend any of the county or superior courts of the county of Rutherford, and perform the duties required by law, shall be allowed and paid, in the manner now provided by law, for each and every day's attendance, the sum of one dollar, and the like sum for every thirty miles travelling to and from court.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted. That each and every person, who, being lawfully summoned, shall attend any of the courts aforesaid of Rutherford county, as a witness in any cause pending therein, shall be allowed, for each and every day's attendance, the sum of